

DRUMBO & CARRYDUFF PARISH

Everyone Belongs

Following recent events in North Belfast, we want to reassure all members of our parish community, especially those from other cultural backgrounds and have made this place their home, that all are welcome, valued, and respected. As Church we believe and stand for dignity, compassion, friendship, and peace. We pray for all who are feeling anxious or fearful and pray that each of us work to help build a community where every person feels safe and included.

“Love one another as I have loved you.” (John 13:34)

Bereavement Coffee Evening 17th June at 7pm in St Mochumma Room

We understand that losing a loved one can leave a deep sense of absence, and the journey through grief can often feel lonely. Over a cup of tea or coffee, we hope to offer a time of quiet companionship, shared stories, and support. If you have any questions or would like more information, please feel free to contact us on 07759391097.
